IMPORTANT RAILROAD SUIT—SALE OF THE LOUISVILLE, NEW ALBANY, AND CHICAGO RAILROAD ORDERED.

The important case of D. D. Williamson vs. the Louisville, New Albany, and Chicago Railroad Company was decided in the White county Court of Common Pleas, at Monticello, Indiana, on Friday. The suit was brought in the Common Pleas Court at New Albany, but a change of venue was granted Judge Laure, of Tippecanoe county, before whom the case was tried. After hearing the argument, Judge Laure ordered a decree of sale. The Sheriff of White county, after advertising the property for forty days in one newspaper at Monticello, two in New Albany, and two in the city of New York, is empowered to sell the road, its franchises, rolling stock, depots, and other property, to the highest bidder, the proceeds to be applied to indemnifying the bondholders. The sale will take place about the first of April. This is one of the most important suits ever decided by an Indiana court, involving as it does, millions of dollars.

OPINION OF THE ATTONNEY GENERAL.

Attorney General Evarts has just given an opinion that where a captain in the army has been sentenced by a court-martial to reduction in rank, by having his name placed lower down on the list of officers of the same grade, a remission of the penalty by the President in the exercise of the pardoning power will have the effect of restoring the officer to his former relative rank and position on the roll—the officer losing, of course, such opportunities for promotion as may in the meantime have occurred.—This opinion is an important one, as it is one not in accordance with the ruling and practic of the War Department hitherto. This opinion has already caused the restoration to their former rank of the following officers in the army: Capt. J. B. W. Neil, 36th infantry; G. S. Pierce, 28th infantry; R. P. McKibben, 4th infantry; and Lieut. C. H. Conrad, 35th infantry.

The revolutionists in Congress are divided on the question of throwing the State of Georgia out of the Union back into a territorial condition. But how they stand, for and against, remains to be seen. No man who has the slightest regard for the principles upon which the Government was founded, or for his oath to support the Constitution of the Union, can, for a moment, support the measure. Senator Sherman, of Ohio, heads the opposition to it, but whether he can carry enough of his party with him to defeat it, remains to be seen. If a majority of a rump Congress can lawfully break up the Government of a State, thrust her people out of the Union, and place her under a military dictator. The Constitution and Union as framed by our fathers are gone. This is not the "entertainment" to which the people were invited by those who called themselves Republicans when the party came into power. One of the "planks" in their platform was in these words:

"Resolved, That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially of the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions, according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends, and we denounce the lawless invasion, by armed force, of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes."

No explanation is needed to show the meaning of this resolution. "He who runs may read and understand." This was the promise—(maintenance of the rights of the States)—the pledge, that was given to the people of all the States. But, we see an utter forfeiture—an outrageous violation of "word and honor," of oath, of allegiance, of Constitution and Union. Where or when the work of perfidy and perjury will end, is not known.

A carpet-bagger's idea of courage, as he stated it to a gentleman in this city, a short time ago, is this: "You Southerners," said he, "excel us in physical courage, for you risk your lives and limbs to support a cause; but we Northerners excel in moral courage, for though we are loth to expose ourselves to personal danger, but will endure any amount of abuse and take public opinion in any way, in adherence to a principle which you Southerners would desert the first intimation that popular clamor was against you." About one portion of the carpet-bagger's statement there can be no doubt, for it is not to be denied that members of his fraternity will take any amount of abuse and insult without resenting it, and face the opinion of honest men in every way in adherence to the grand "principle" which actuates them—the principle of plunder, the hopes of putting which into practice have drawn them hither like iron is drawn by the magnet. As to the balance of the carpet-bagger's assertions, our readers can place the proper value upon them.

A Long Absence.—Thirty six years ago, a man living in this county, (then Stokes, was arrested for some violation of the law. He was tied and placed on horseback and started off to Germantown, then the county seat. After he was arrested his wife managed to slip him a knife, and on the way to prison he cut his bonds, and being well mounted, he made good his escape.—Nothing was heard from him after his escape by his family. He had been married but a short time, and his wife mourned for him as one dead. A few weeks since an old gray headed man stopped at the house where she was living and inquired for her. She came out, when he asked her if she knew him. She told him she had no recollection of ever having seen him before. He then made himself known as her long absent husband; and now, after a separation of nearly forty years, they are again living together as happily as a newly married couple.—Winston Sentinel.

Captain Brown, of the navy, who took to Japan the iron-clad ram Stonewall, purchased by the Japanese Government, has telegraphed from San Francisco that he will deliver the ram to the Mikado Government at once. Captain Brown, on his arrival in Japan, found a civil war raging, and both parties claimed the vessel, but he refused to deliver her to either. The Mikado having been successful, and he promises to pay all expenses, is to receive the Stonewall.

LIFE INSURANCE.
The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.
ASSETS OVER
$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK,.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS,.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE,.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER,.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.,.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS OF TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.
ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,351
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.
PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.
CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.
Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

RAILROADS.
TO SHIPPERS.
NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)
THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!
The Great Inland Air Line Freight
ROUTE,
Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,
is the Short Line for Shippers, and you are required so to direct your Freights, or they will be taken by another route!

To insure your Freight being carried over this Great Inland Air Line safely, direct your consignees to mark your Freight, Care of Rail Road Agent, Portsmouth, Va., or City Point, Va., via Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, and to ship as follows:

MISCELLANEOUS
NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, in cleansing, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

So invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at DOUGLAS & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

LITTLEFIELD AND THE STANDARD.

Why did Littlefield purchase the Standard? What wanted he with a newspaper, but to discourage legislative honesty and traduce the little of legislative virtue that is now to be found. True to the object and purpose of its purchaser, the Standard as sails legislative integrity, sincerity and moderation, whether it be found in the person of a carpet bagger or native. It is sure, too, to defend legislative corruption. Hear Gen. Littlefield, speaking through his paper, when he dare not show his face in the city:

"At last," says the Standard, "the Committee of investigation on fraud and corruption has reported. At last the character of the General Assembly is vindicated; no spot tarnishes its honor, and the voice of suspicion has ceased its revilings. What are the facts elicited from the report of the Committee: Two men, for some purpose, known but to themselves, offered in the Senate of North Carolina, resolutions which, until the facts are proven, impeach the honor and character of every member of the General Assembly. These charges, they aver, as Senators and gentlemen, they are capable of sustaining. Public suspicion rests on every member of the General Assembly; its acts are viewed with distrust, its character blackened at home and abroad; at last members demand of the investigators of the charges why they are under an unjust reproach. Another week passes and still nothing is done. The General Assembly feels trifled with. A resolution is about to be introduced compelling a report from the Committee, when Mr. Sweet reluctantly yields to that which he cannot longer resist. And such a report; it is a simple acknowledgment that there is no evidence that fraud has ever been perpetrated; that, with the exception of the bribery of which one of the Committee was guilty, no bribery has ever been committed, and that not the slightest ground for these charges ever existed.

The report concludes by the request to be discharged, and is signed by W. H. Sweet. And this, after he pledged his sacred word and honor, as a gentleman and a Senator, that he could, and would, prove the truth of his charges. Was utter shamelessness ever more strikingly shown! This man who, undoubtedly for purposes of malice and revenge, charged dishonor upon the legislative body of which he has proven himself an unworthy member, unmindful of the honor of a Senator and a gentleman, owns that he does not know of the existence of any fraud, and never did.

We do not wish to pursue this subject further, and have only given our readers a fair and unprejudiced statement of the case, that they may judge for themselves where the dishonor lies, and upon whom the disgrace should fall. The Senate will hold Mr. Sweet to a rigid account, and demand of him his reasons for so wickedly and unjustly assailing its reputation. In this matter we rise above party. If we were influenced by party considerations, we should defend Mr. Sweet because he is a Republican. But we publish a journal for the people; and now, as we promised weeks ago, demand the punishment of the guilty. False to his word as a gentleman, recreant to his vows as a Senator, traducer of the honor of his adopted State, let the Senate of that State deal with him as an unworthy member, and demand the atonement due its outraged honor."

This article, next to the article "work," which appeared in the Standard of the 19th September, 1868, is one of the most infamous productions of that profligate paper. It is said, and we believe, it was written by Governor Holden. If so, taken in connection with other facts, it would look like the Governor was in the Ring.

Read the evidence taken by that Committee, then read the article, said to be written by Governor Holden; who can doubt or deny it was written in the interest of Littlefield and the Ring?

Then take this fact, that one hundred and eighty thousand dollars of North Carolina Railroad bonds were sold by the Treasurer, with the approval of the Governor, for 65 cents in the dollar, and that those bonds were never sold as low before or since; couple that with the failure to pay the January interest, and the telegram to New York soon after from the Governor, that the interest would be paid,—and we have proof that somebody is in the Ring beside Littlefield.

Last year, as President of that Road, we disposed of $300,000 of North Carolina Railroad bonds at par. Except the one sale by the Treasurer, approved of by the Governor, these bonds never sold for 65; in fact, we know persons who bought the same bonds next day at 80. The State National Bank loaned the Treasurer money last October to pay the October interest, and that too, at six per cent.

The Treasurer and Governor did not call on that Bank to loan them money to pay the January interest and why? Oh! tell us why. If Littlefield were here, we believe he could answer the question.

In the Standard of Saturday is another leader, said to be, and we verily believe it, from the pen of Governor Holden, calling for the expulsion of Senator Sweet, because he has failed to make good his charge of bribery and corruption. The evidence of the Committee convicts Littlefield, Editor of the Standard. Dr. Hawkins proves that Littlefield received money for putting the Chatham Railroad through this Legislature. How stands the matter as to Stevens, of Craven? He had filed his petition in bankruptcy. Just before leaving home, he is in want of $50, and borrows the money. When he comes to Raleigh, Littlefield, a stranger, loans him $1200 and takes his note for the money, without security?

The Governor, after standing in the lobby Friday, listening to the discussion on the report of the Committee on bribery and corruption, writes the article in the Standard of the 30th, calling for the expulsion of Senator Sweet. From his silence, we take it he regards the Stevens and Littlefield affair, as a legitimate legislative transaction. We have no proof of the Governor's being in the Ring, but we know his editorials are just what the Ring, Littlefield & Co. will delight to read.

EVIDENCE OF MR. A. W. STEVENS.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Are you a member of this General Assembly?

Answer. I am.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did Milton S Littlefield give you his draft on New York for $1,200, payable to your order, and dated August the 20th, 1868?

Answer. He did—as to date I am not positive.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Upon whom was the draft made?

Answer. Souter & Co.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Has the draft been paid, and, if so, at what time?

Answer. A portion of it was paid in September, and the rest after my return from the North. It was paid in three installments. The second ($100) was paid in October, and the balance in November, I think, before we met, but I am not positive.

Question by Mr. Sweet. By whom was this draft paid?

Answer. It was paid by General Littlefield.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you ever present this draft to Souter & Co., in New York City?

Answer. I did.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What was said to you by them on presentation of this draft?

Answer. They said they were in the habit of paying his drafts, and that he did his banking business through them, but that just then they had no funds of his. I told the clerk that I was in advance of the time I had said I would be there.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What was the consideration for this draft?

Answer. I borrowed the money from him, and gave him my note at six months.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What was the exact day on which your note was given?

Answer. I could not tell positively without consulting my accounts, but it was in August.

Question by Mr. Sweet. How long have you been acquainted with Milton S. Littlefield?

Answer. I have been acquainted with him since June, 1868.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did he ever have any conversation with you about Railroad or other measures?

Answer. No, he did not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Were you urged personally to support any particular bill before the General Assembly?

Answer. I was, several.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Was there any consideration, in the form of money or its equivalent, given or promised to you by any one, for your vote or influence in favor of the passage of any bill through the General Assembly?

Answer. No, sir.

Question by Mr. Estes. Was the loan made in consideration of any service by you?

Answer. Not at all.

Question by Mr. Estes. Did you vote for the passage of a bill known as the Chatham Railroad bill?

Answer. I did not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you vote against the appropriation to the Chatham Railroad Company?

Answer. I did not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you offer any remarks in the House in favor of the passage of the Chatham Railroad appropriation bill, at the first session of this General Assembly?

Answer. I do not think I did.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you vote for or against the same bill when re enacted at the present session of this General Assembly?

Answer. I do not recollect whether I did or not.

EVIDENCE OF MR. A. S. SEYMOUR.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Where do you reside?

Answer. In the city of Newbern.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Are you acquainted with A. W. Stevens, Representative of Craven county?

Answer. I am.

Question by Mr. Sweet. How long have you been with him?

Answer. About two years.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What is his financial standing?

Answer. I do not know anything of his present financial standing; he filed a petition in bankruptcy in March, 1868, and I believe obtained his discharge in the last month or two.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Has he such credit, as would enable him to borrow money on his own paper, without endorsement?

Answer. I think not, at least not at a Bank as a commercial transaction.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Have you at any time endorsed his paper, and, if so, at what time and for what amount?

Answer. I endorsed Mr. Stevens' note for fifty dollars previous to the last session of the Legislature; it was somewhere about the end of June.

EVIDENCE OF DR. W. J. HAWKINS.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Are you President of the Chatham Railroad Company?

Answer. Yes.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Has the Chatham Railroad Company purchased its right of way between its intersection with the Western Railroad and the South Carolina State line?

Answer. No, the road is not definitely located, we are working on the fourth line of survey.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you transfer to certain persons $200 000 in bonds to secure the passage through this General Assembly of the act, entitled "An act to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company," ratified August 15th, 1868?

Answer. I did not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Have you parted with any bonds for such a purpose?

Answer. No, I have parted with no bonds for that purpose to any member of the General Assembly.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Have you promised bonds, or any other consideration, to any member of this General Assembly, for his vote or his influence in securing the passage of said act?

Answer. I have not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Have you promised bonds or any other consideration to any one for his influence in favor of said act with members of this General Assembly.

Answer. I have not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Do you know, or have you reason to believe, that bonds or other consideration have been given or promised to members of this General Assembly for their votes and influence in favor of any bill?

Answer. No. I don't know of any, and the only reason I have of believing such a thing is rumor.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you employ Gen. Milton S. Littlefield, and if so, how much did you pay him to urge the passage of the act to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company, ratified August 15th, 1868?

Answer. Gen. Littlefield acted as my attorney, and I sold him a certain amount of bonds at a certain price.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What amount of bonds and at what price did yourself to Gen. Littlefield?

Answer. I sold him $100,000 at sixty.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did he, at the time of receiving these bonds, pay you the amount due for them at sixty per cent?

Answer. He gave me a draft on New York at ninety days, which is not yet due.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you agree to sell bonds to any other person if the bill became a law?

Answer. I did not.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Please state the entire conversation between yourself and General Littlefield, which resulted in your agreement to sell him $100,000 at sixty per cent?

Answer. I had no conversation with General Littlefield in regard to the bonds until after the passage of the bill; he made me a proposition to buy $100,000 at sixty at ninety days—the bonds were then, I think, about sixty-five in New York.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Was there any understanding between yourself and Gen. Littlefield about payment of draft for $100,000 of bonds?

Answer. There was no understanding about it. He gave me a draft on a house in New York, said to be good.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Did you take the draft of Milton S. Littlefield without endorsement by any one?

Answer. I did, sir.

Question by Mr. Estes. Is it not customary to take the draft of a responsible individual on a responsible house, without endorsement.

Answer. It is.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Upon whom in New York City was the $60,000 draft made, which Milton S. Littlefield gave you for the $100,000 of North Carolina bonds?

Answer. It was upon Heyt & Gardner.

Question by Mr. Sweet. What was the date of the draft?

Answer. I think it was about the 20th of October.

Question by Mr. Sweet. How long have you been acquainted with Milton S. Littlefield?

Answer. I am unable to say, but I think it was on his first visit to this city.

Question by Mr. Sweet. Do you consider Milton S. Littlefield a responsible man?

Answer. I believe he is responsible; I know he has considerable property.

Resolution in favor of Jas. H. Chaffin, the smallest man in the world, (proposes to exempt him from all tax while on exhibition in the State.)

On motion of Mr. Love, it was indefinitely postponed.

On motion, the Senate adjourned, until monday morning, 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Jan. 30, 1869.

According to adjournment, the House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the House.

Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Moore gave notice, that he would shortly, introduce a bill to incorporate the Union Church Society.

Mr. Wilkie presented the report of the Commissioners of Jones County. Referred.

Mr. Morrill presented the report of the County Commissioners of Brunswick. Referred.

Mr. Pou gave notice that he would introduce a bill to incorporate the town of Boone Hill, and a bill making Neuse River a lawful fence.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Dixon, from the Committee on Claims, reported favorably upon the resolution in favor of A. O. Kerr, and also one in favor of W. S. Wiggins and others.

Placed on the Calendar.

BILLS.

By Mr. Sinclair: A bill for the reconstruction of the University of North Carolina. Referred, and ordered to be printed.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution to employ an Assistant Engrossing Clerk until the 10th of Feb. next. Lies over.

By — Price, colored: A resolution raising a Joint Committee to inquire into the financial condition of the Treasury. Lies over.

By Mr. Painter: A resolution in favor of B. S. Buchanan, Sheriff of Jackson County.

On motion of Mr. Painter, the rules were suspended, and the resolution passed its several readings.

By Mr. Williams, of Harnett: A resolution in favor of J. R. Grandy, Sheriff of Harnett Co. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Rentrow, the rules were suspended, and the bill to incorporate the Littleton Manufacturing Co. was taken up, and, after some debate, was ordered to be printed, and made the special order for Monday next at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Ragland, the rules were suspended, and the bill incorporating the town of Henderson, Granville Co., was taken up, and passed its several readings.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the House resolution in relation to the special tax on whisky, and transmitting Senate bill to amend an act entitled an act to make Bank bills a set off, and also Senate resolution in relation to the Mint, at Charlotte, N. C.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the bill in relation to the County of Grant, was taken up, and made special order for next Thursday week.

By Mr. Graham: A bill authorizing the Swift Island Manufacturing Company to establish a ferry over the Pee Dee River. Referred.

Mr. Hinnant, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported several bills and resolutions as being enrolled.

On motion of Mr. Welker, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in favor of A. O Kerr, was taken up, and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Downing, the rules were suspended, and the Senate resolution in relation to the Mint at Charlotte, was taken up.

[This resolution requests our Representatives and Senators in Congress to use their influence to have this Mint put into operation.]

Mr. Downing thought this resolution was a very important one indeed. He understood that the Secretary of the Treasury has advised the sale of that property and in his opinion made a step which would result very injuriously to the mining interest of the state, &c.

Messrs Vest and Sinclair also favored the resolution:

The resolution, after being slightly amended was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Peck, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Tarboro, to grant the right of way to the Tarboro and Williamston Railroad, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr Dixon from the Committee on Claims reported favorably upon the bill in favor of Elias Longcraft of Catawba County.

On motion of Mr. Dixon, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Stilley, the rules were suspended, and the bill on Salaries, and also the bill on Fees, were taken up, and made special order for Thursday next.

On motion of Mr. McMillan, the rules were suspended, and the bill incorporating Rohoboth Lodge No. 279, A. Y. M., Duplin Co., was taken up, and passed its several readings.

On motion of J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the protection of Mechanics and other laborers, was taken up, and made the special order for Friday next.

By Mr. Rea: A resolution in favor of J. M. Bateman, Sheriff of Washington Co. Referred.

The bill to amend the act to protect wild fowls in Currituck Sound, was taken up, and passed its several readings

The bill to incorporate the Cape Fear Insurance Co., taken up, and on motion, postponed for a short while.

Mr. Sinclair moved to suspend the rules and take up the bills and resolution in relation to the Penitentiary.

Mr. Hinnant was opposed to the suspension.

J. S. Leary, colored, thought the attendance was at present too slim to consider that matter, therefore he opposed the motion to suspend the rules.

After some debate, the question recurred upon the motion to suspend the rules, which being put to a vote was rejected.

By consent, — Price, colored: A bill to amend the act concerning the Inspection of the City of Wilmington.

CALENDAR (CONTINUED.)

The bill to prevent the felling of trees in Mitchell's River, S. C., was taken up, and passed its several readings.

The bill to amend the act concerning the State Loan and Trust Co. was taken up and passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Welch moved to adjourn, and on that motion called for the yeas and nays. The call, being sustained, resulted in a vote of yeas 33, nays 44.

Mr. Welch moved to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to adjourn.

Mr. Long, of Chatham, moved to lay that motion on the table.

No quorum voted.

The Speaker appointed Messrs. Malone and Rentrow as tellers, to those passing to the right voting in the affirmative, and those passing to the left voting in the negative.

Mr. Rentrow reported 36 in the affirmative, and Mr. Malone reported 34 as voting in the negative. Laid on the table.

The House, then on motion of Mr. Welch, adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS OF FRIDAY JAN. 29TH CONCLUDED.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Report of the Committee on Bribery and Corruption, with the following resolution, introduced by Mr. Rich, to-wit:

Resolved, That the Senate having heard all the facts in the transaction affecting the Senator from Rowan, declare that while they disapprove the idea that it is proper for any Senator to receive any compensation beyond his per diem for any thing done in the capacity of a Senator, yet from the facts shown, they are confident that this transaction was without any corrupt intent and while they consider it an inadvertence on the part of said Senator, they still have confidence in his integrity.

Mr. Respass offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That having heard the evidence in the case of Senator Robbins, while we disapprove of his act as improper in itself, we acquit him of intentional error, and still have confidence in his personal honor and integrity.

Mr. Davis offered the following amendment:

That it be the sense of this Senate that Wm. M. Robbins be requested to come before the bar of this body and receive a reprimand.

Mr. Respass opposed the amendment he did not see any propriety or justice in such a course, it was absurd and unreasonable to believe that the honorable Senator thought of any wrong at the time of this transaction. If he had, he certainly, would not have risked his all in the hands of a political opponent for twenty dollars. He had perfect and abiding faith in the honesty and integrity of the Senator from Rowan, and this matter had no effect to shake that confidence, that Senator had suffered enough already, because of this unfortunate affair, he did not see any necessity for attempting to humiliate, he hoped the amendment would be voted down.

Mr. Blythe: I wish to ask the Senator from Craven a question. Did Mr. Robbins make his confession to the Committee before any steps were taken to bring Mr. Stephens before the Committee as a witness?

Mr. Sweet: On Saturday I ascertained the name of Mr. Stephens. On Monday there was no meeting of the Committee, and Mr. Robbins made his confession at the next meeting of the Committee. I have no reason to believe that Mr. Robbins knew that I knew anything of the matter, for he had asked me if I had heard any rumor concerning him and I had told him I had not.

Mr Blythe: What did Mr. Robbins say to you?

Mr. Sweet: One night after the Committee had adjourned, about midnight, while passing out of the Capitol, Mr. Robbins asked me that question. I think Mr. Robbins said, "There is a rumor about me, and it is false."

Mr. Blythe: I desire to ask Mr. Stephens a few questions. Mr. Stephens had you any private conversation with Mr. Robbins, in relation to this matter before you gave in your evidence before the Committee?

[Mr. Stephens here asked the President whether he was bound to relate a private conversation. The Chair held that he was.]

Mr. Stephens: On the Saturday before I gave my evidence before the Committee a conversation occurred between Mr. Robbins and myself. Mr. Wiswall and myself were leaving the Capitol when we met Mr. Robbins who told me he wished to have some private conversation with me. I walked with him to one side. I cannot recall the exact words that he used, but in it he said that he had understood that rumors of the transaction were afloat and he wished me to deny the whole matter, that he had made up his mind to do so; that if the facts were made public he and I would be eternally damned. I told him that I did not consider myself implicated and did not feel disposed to deny anything. He said he had gone over the whole matter, and did not in his heart, feel himself guilty of any wrong, as he had offered to pay the money back. I refused to take the money back or to deny the affair.

Mr. Robbins: In the private conversation you speak of, did I not say that we should deny the fact of bribery?

Mr. Stephens: That is what you said.

Mr. Robbins: Did I not say that I made the transaction at the time innocently, and that I was perplexed about it because some men would misconstrue it?

Mr. Stephens: You said so.

Mr. Robbins: Did I not say that reflection had satisfied me there was no intentional error in the matter, and that I repudiated it in my heart, and wished it to be as it never had been?

Mr. Stephens: You said you did not wish the transaction to be known and wanted me to deny it.

Mr. Robbins: Was it not the wrong intention I desired to deny, and the fact of bribery?

Mr. Stephens: It may have been that way. I did not so understand it.

Mr. Robbins: Did I not say then that I had forgotten the matter till since this investigation was begun, I had resolved to undo it, and return you that fee?

Mr. Stephens. You did.

Mr. Robbins: I ask you if, in the last conversation I had with you on this matter, if you did not say to me that if I would hold off further efforts in prosecuting the investigation into bribery and corruption, you would manage so that this charge on me should die out and nothing further should be done in regard to it?

Mr. Stephens: I said it would be better for you not to stir the matter any further, and all would be right.

Mr. Robbins: Did I not ask you to go to Mr. Parker and tell him there was no intention to commit bribery between you and I?

Mr. Stephens: I did not so understand you. If I had I should have done so because I had no intention of bribing you, and think there was no intention of bribery on your part.

Mr. Wynne spoke at length, we have no space to give his remarks in full, he held that the man who offered the money was as guilty or more so than he who received it. If Mr. R. is to receive any punishment, and he Mr. W. did not desire it, Mr. Stephens, should not escape. He did not believe the Senator from Rowan, could have thought of wrong in this matter. If that Senator had been a corrupt man no doubt he could have had twenty thousand dollars for his influence in favor of measures here.

Mr. Welker said he knew all about this transaction before the end of the summer session. He had never thought of mentioning it himself, he would have felt bound to reveal it, and have had it investigated long ago if he had believed there was any corruption in it, and moved to lay the whole matter on the table, but withdrew the motion in favor of Mr. Osborne.

Mr Osborne said:

Mr. President:—I am under obligations to the Senator from Guilford, that he has withdrawn the motion to lay this subject on the table, that I may have an opportunity to say a few words in regard to it. First, Sir, in reply to the Senator from Wake, I cannot perceive wherein the Senator from Craven is in any thing culpable in regard to this investigation. Not imputing fraud or corruption to the member from Craven, (Mr. Stevens,) and passing by the discussion of that subject, we must place ourselves in the situation of the Senator from Craven, and regarding the facts as he understood them, we can have but one opinion in regard to the good faith and integrity of the Senator's motives in pursuing the investigation.

Senators have referred to some intemperate remarks of the Senator from Craven, in previous discussions on this subject, and these have been grounds on which he has been assailed. But such observations are so much owing to natural temperament and to the surrounding circumstances by which a public speaker may be surrounded, that it would be unjust to hold them up in condemnation of a Senator, in calmly passing on the motions of his public conduct. But the investigation has not been without beneficial results in other respects. We have the fact, proved before the Committee, that $100 000 of bonds of the Chatham Railroad, public property of this State, were passed to one individual, Gen. Littlefield, not a citizen of this State, whose property is, by no means, definitely ascertained, on his individual draft, without endorsement, at 90 days, on a house in New York, who, it does not appear, have accepted the draft to this day. The market price of the bonds is said to be sixty-five dollars, and, yet, these are sold to him at sixty dollars, making a loss, to the Chatham Road, of five thousand dollars. The testimony is, that Gen. Littlefield was the attorney of the witness to procure the passage of the bill appropriating to the Chatham Road. I only regard this, at present, as the use made by a public officer of funds placed in his hands by the General Assembly for a object.

Here Mr. Rich rose to a point of order, and the President ruled the Senator as out of order; by a general consent he was then permitted to proceed in order.

Resuming, Mr. Osborne said: That he had been led astray by the wide latitude, which the debate had previously assumed, and would confine himself to the resolution affecting the Senator from Rowan. Of course, Mr. President, I approach the discussion of this resolution with great pain. The Senator from Rowan, has been my intimate personal and political friend, and his public and private bearing has ever attracted my highest confidence. But Mr. President, these considerations must not blind our judgments as to the conduct of any public servant. It can never be admitted that a member of the General Assembly, can receive any compensation beyond that allowed by law for any thing which he may do in his public character. Such a principle in its most innocent application, will lead to infinite abuses—and the preservation of integrity in legislative bodies will be rendered impossible. All measures are, in one sense, public. It was to the interest of the member from Caswell, that he should be paid his per diem; but he was to be paid from the public Treasury. The Senator from Rowan, therefore, committed a grave error. It was a departure from propriety which he has admitted frankly, and no one more fully recognizes the true principle than he. But, in his defence, Mr. President, the Senator states that it was an inadvertence—done openly—without concealment, and, therefore, with no fraudulent motive. All the circumstances show this to have been the true character of the transaction. No Senator, who has spoken on this subject, seems to doubt it. No one, at the moment conscious of a fraudulent purpose, could have committed his reputation to the Senator from Caswell; a political opponent, with whom he had had no previous acquaintance,—and taken no security against exposure. For, in this case, exposure was inevitable, and if there had been doubt about it, the Senator from Rowan made it absolutely certain by moving and earnestly advocating the resolutions of investigation.

The Senator from Caswell declares that he was not conscious of any wrong—and that he knows that the Senator from Rowan was not influenced in his vote by the consideration given. For he had already voted for the per diem in favor of two Senators who were excluded by the 14th. amendment of the Constitution. His position and public course on this subject was well understood. While, therefore, the act was wrong, the motive was not impure. But some considerations have been passed on this subject in uncharitable spirit by the Senator from Henderson. It is on evidence that the Senator from Rowan denied this transaction after it became the subject of comment. Some doubt is thrown over the fact as to whether his denial went to the question of moral guilt, or to the denial of the fact. But taking it in its worst aspect, what had the Senator to do but boldly to deny it, confront and defy his sole accuser? Who does not know that such a line of conduct would at least have been completely successful with his friends? With his high intellect and his brave bearing, does not every one see that a bold, bad man had only to meet the accusation with scorn and defiance, to have silenced his accuser. But, see, the Senator from Rowan, is a professing Christian. The plaudits of the world might have followed him, but he would have carried with him the consciousness of a deep moral wrong. No worldly expediency, and no triumphant vindication of himself, would have justified such a course. For a moment in the new and embarrassing situation in which he was placed, he hesitated. High principle was tried by the strongest conceivable temptations, and it is creditable to his character that moral and Christian principle triumphed. The subject was one of reflection, of self examination, and fervent prayer, and the temptations of frowns, of mortification—of reproach—were conquered by moral resolution and by the fear of God. After all that had been said and done, he went to the Committee, made the statement which has been submitted to the Senate, and desired that the Senator from Caswell might be sent for to contradict, or to confirm, his statement, as the case might be, under the circumstances. I think, Mr. President, that the honor of this Senate, and the integrity of the public service generally, will be vindicated by the adoption of the resolution of the Senator from Pitt, or that of the Senator from Beaufort, as, in different terms, they express the same idea, and I do not believe that the public interest demands a harsher judgment.

Mr. Graham said: The moral quality of an action depends upon the intention with which it was done, and I must confess that I was surprised, at the remarks of Senators that we had nothing to do with the intentions of the parties in this matter. To constitute a crime we always charge that an act was done with a certain intent and as in an indictment for murder, being moved and seduced by the instigation of the devil, and with malice aforethought, feloniously and wilfully. So also in larceny the act must be done with a felonious intent or as we say "animo furandi," which for the benefit of those Senators who so much dislike the use of Latin phrases in our laws, I would explain does not mean with a "furious mind" but with an intention of "appropriating the property to the takers own use, without the knowledge or consent of the owner." An assault has been defined by Judge Gaston in State vs Davis "an INTENTIONAL attempt to do corporal hurt to the person of another."

The true enquiry, then, would be, did Senator Robbins wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, sell his vote or influence to J. W. Stevens, in favor of the resolution concerning the per diem of the latter, while contesting the seat of Hon. Bedford Brown? The evidence shows that Robbins stated to Stevens that he should vote for the resolution, before any mention was made of the twenty dollars. The opinion of Stevens, as brought out to day, that he thought he was procuring the influence of Senator Robbins, is not evidence of the guilt of the latter, as the parties, to the same transactions, very often act from entirely different motives. There was no conversation during the transaction to this effect, but the payment of the money seems to have been entirely gratuitous on the part of Stevens, and accompanied by the remark, "as you are a lawyer I do not expect you to work for me for nothing," to which Robbins answered, "that is just as you please."—Showing that whatever the money was paid or not, his course would be just the same. That it was wrong, and a great mistake, on the part of Mr. Robbins, to have received the money no one will deny, and, to a resolution so declaring, I imagine, there will not be a dissenting voice. I believe it to be wrong for any public officer to receive any other remuneration, than that allowed by law, for his services, or even to receive a gift or present for the manner in which he has discharged the duties of his station.—Admitting, then, that the Senator from Rowan has committed an act which we must condemn as improper, is not our honor sufficiently vindicated by the passage of the resolution, proposed by the Senator from Beaufort, Mr. Respass? Is not the publicity which this matter has obtained, and the scene here presented, to-day, sufficient humiliation without the adoption of the resolution offered by the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Davis, requiring a public reprimand? Let us not even appear to be vindictive in our punishment.

Mr. Rich called the previous question.

On motion of Mr. Barrow, the Senate adjourned.

Senate and Sentinel Correspondence

SENATE CHAMBER, }
Raleigh, January 7, 1869. }

Mr. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor Sentinel:

I observe, in your paper of the first of January, the following Editorial:

"The last news from Oxford is that Gen Littlefield paid Mr. Robt. W. Lassiter, the Senator from Granville, $7,000,—at the rate of twenty dollars per acre, for land so poor that the very squirrels go about crying all the Fall, because of the scarcity of food.—A Granville man declared to us that he would not give fifty cents an acre for the land, and that if a kildee grazed upon it he would get so poor that Lassiter would have to let down the fence to drive him off the wheat, for he would not be able to fly! Now this much is of record."

The above is a false statement, for which, as the matter now stands, you are responsible. You say, however, that a Granville man is your informant. If such be the fact, I expect you to publish the information with the name of the author.

In justice to myself, I ask the insertion of this Card in your paper.

Yours Respectfully,
R. W. LASSITER.

P. S. I have written Mr. Taylor who says, he never spoke to you about my land until after the appearance of your kildee article, and then he only spoke of the poverty of the soil.

P. S. S. How do you expect to get the kildees from Granville to the Penitentiary park, on Deep River?

SENTINEL OFFICE, Jan. 29, 1869.

Hon. R. W. Lassiter,
Colleague of Guffy Mayo:

The lovers of Literature are sure to regret, after reading the letters of Demothenese, that they are so few, and that any of his charming letters should have been lost.

Cicero's letters are valued above all his other writings, and works, and so with your letters, they are said to have afforded more delight and merriment to your constituents, than any public act of your life, not excepting the one locating the Penitentiary, or the sale of your land to Milton Littlefield, Editor of the Standard.

There was so much sameness in your letters, that I thought I had better discontinue the correspondence; but, the postscript, which I have added, gives some variety and change. I will continue, on my part, since it seems to give pleasure to Cuffy's colleague.

You rose in the Senate to a question of personal privilege. Jefferson says: Questions of personal privilege are such as pertain to the person or member, himself, and take precedence of all other questions.

Now, how could the President of the Senate allow you to be heard on kildees, when you had risen to a question pertaining to yourself?

No wonder the Treasury is bankrupt, and can't pay even members per diem, when you keep 49 hands idle with your kildee talk, while the people pay them seven dollars, each, a day. If you will look at my letter, that is exactly what I stated. Mr. Taylor only spoke of the poverty of the soil.

Now, getting the kildees from Granville to Deep River, involves more difficulty than ever entered into the Lieutenant Governor's philosophy. He must have learned, when he went to Currituck, that a wild duck would fly 60 miles an hour; but we doubt if he did, for he seems to learn nothing, not even the rules of the Senate. He would say, fly the kildees to the Penitentiary park; that, according to wild duck flight and measurement, the kildee would travel 40 miles an hour and reach the park in two hours. He would calculate on the kildees flying notwithstanding his knowledge of the fact, that you have to put down the gap to drive them off the wheat. Now, if they can't fly over the fence, we say it would be error in the Lieutenant Governor to give an opinion that they could fly 40 miles an hour. So your kildees, Senator, must be driven to the Penitentiary purchase. Don't consult the Lieutenant Governor or the Governor, on the subject. The first has no sense, and the latter no practical wisdom. He never succeeded in a good enterprise in his life. As a worker in mean nests, his success has been pre-eminent.—Your squirrels, you know, must go with your kildees. If Holden has anything to do in the matter, he will soon have the squirrels assassinating the kilkees, as Booth did Lincoln. You remember, in the Standard of the 5th of June, 1861, he publishes to the world, inquiringly, "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

Littlefield is your man; he is practical vigor itself; give him one hundred thousand dollars in State bonds, and he can employ members at $1200 to put your kildees through, as he did the Chatham Road.—Besides, that would secure the purchase of the kildees of him at fifty cents apiece. He will never sell at 50 cents, the kildee, if he knows Treasurer Dave is to get $12,50. Littlefield's services at $100,000, will be cheap; that secures the co-operation of the Standard, and Pepper's prayers.

Littlefield, of course, would share with the Governor, the Treasurer, Judge Alden, Cebe Harris, Heck, Pruyn, and the Ring; and put heavy in the plate, when Pepper preaches in the "Church of the Strangers." This would leave him but little, after paying $2,500 for whiskey, to members. But, you know, when Lafever was reduced, like the kildees, uncle Toby said, Lafever can't march. So, we say, the kildees can't march. Now, you will find your old neighbor, Hon. Abraham W. Venable, as full of kindness and compassion for your kildees, as uncle Toby was for Lafever. It is six miles from your plantation to his—two days march; three miles a day, will bring you to Grassy Creek.

The Brownsville is well grown in grass and used for grazing purposes. We hear that your neigubor, Venable, labors with his own hands, coat off, every day. He doing the labor, there must be an abundance of grass for your birds on so large a plantation.

As to your quadrupeds, drive them half way from your house to Nut Bush; say, about the neighborhood of Dr. Lewis.

It would endanger the life of every squirrel, they being accustomed to low range, to put them in the tops of the high timber of Nut Bush. Six of your neighbors called at my office last night to subscribe to the Sentinel, and talk over your land, the Penitentiary location, the corruption of the Legislature, and the flight of Alden and Littlefield. They all agreed about the poverty of your Littlefield land. We have it this day from a Granville man that Sephus Hudson your overseer, can with his hands, in his stocking feet, without tiptoeing, pick a squirrel out of your loftiest tree. Hence, the danger of the Nut Bush range. Even the Lieut. Governor can see it.

But adieu, until the Ring Master, and Editor of the Standard, returns, and then we shall put the kildees on the march of "new civilization" for the Penitentiary purchase.

Yours in loyalty,
JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

P. S.—Be pleased to perform a pious act by handing this note to Rev. George W. Welker, Senator from Guilford, for his coarse strictures upon us in the Senate.—Tell him "a mild answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stireth up anger.' We can't quarrel with women or preachers. Explain to him, that these lines are from Isaiah, as translated by Bishop Lowth.

"JOYFUL MESSENGER."

"How beautiful appear on the mountains
The feet of the joyful messenger,—of him that announceth peace!
Of the joyful messenger of good tidings,—of him that announceth salvation!
Of him, that sayeth unto sion, Thy God reigneth!
All thy watchmen lift up their voice: they shout together;
For, face to face shall they see, when Jehovah returneth to Sion.
Burst forth into joy, shout together, ye ruins of Jerusalem!
For Jehovah hath comforted His people; He hath redeemed Israel.
Jehovah hath made bear His holy arm, in the sight of all the Nations
And all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Depart, depart ye, go ye out from hence, touch no polluted thing:
Go ye out from the midst of her; be ye clean, ye that bear the vessels of Jehovah!
Verily not in haste shall ye go forth;
And not by flight shall ye march along:
For Jehovah shall march in your front;
And the God of Israel shall bring up your rear."

Tell the pious brother, I think his soul's in peril, with Holden, Littlefield, the Standard, Billy Henderson, Darr's mule and a corrupt Legislature in front, while you, Cuffie Mayo, Stephens and Company, bring up his rear. Tell him the man who handles the vessels of Radicalism, can't be clean enough to handle the vessels of Jehovah.

WHAT WILL HE DO?

There seems to be some forebodings, among the Northern press, that Congress will refuse to repeal the tenure of office act, and that the new President will be shorn of his power to make removals from office of the horde of unprincipled vampires who are sucking the blood from the vitals of the country, regardless of consequences. The act itself, as we all recollect, was a punishment inflicted by Congress on President Johnson. They were determined on revenge, having failed in their impeachment schemes, and so his office was made a mere shell, having neither the power of removal or appointment, without the consent and approval of his masters. The New York World, in discussing this matter, concludes with the remark that, "the refusal of the Senate to repeal the act cannot but be regarded by General Grant as an indignity, a mark of distrust, and a usurpation of powers that properly belong to the President. Congress would have imposed such restrictions upon President Lincoln. They were put upon President Johnson only because Congress regarded him as a renegade. The refusal to repeal is a mode of saying to General Grant that he is less worthy of confidence than Lincoln, and that he deserves to be classed in the same category with Johnson. If he is a man of spirit, he must resent such an affront. He would be justified in refusing the empty shell of an office, and declining to be inaugurated. His present office is a much better one than the Presidency, unless the latter affords him opportunities of usefulness; and his resignation would be a finishing stroke to the Republican party. But we do not suppose that he is a man of such a magnanimous spirit as to spurn an office nominally great but shorn of its powers."

CORRUPTION EVERYWHERE.

We copy to-day, elsewhere, an article from the Columbus, Ga., Enquirer, that reflects, very strongly, upon Gov. Bullock, of that State,—in which thirty five thousand dollars, drawn from a Banking House in New York, on the faith of Georgia, is the mysterious cause. Of course, we know nothing about Gov. Bullock, or the affairs of the State of Georgia. God knows, the corruption right here at home, glaring and undeniable, keep us busy in making exposures, and in ferreting out the guilty parties, and the cautious wording of the Enquirer's article, leads us to the conclusion, that the revelations of the next thirty days in Georgia will disclose a system of theft, corruption and fraud, equal in enormity, to that being exposed in our own State. Gov. Bullock is well known in this community, and further developments will be look to with deep interest.

ACCUMULATED ASSETS OVER
$ 23,000,000.00.
ANNUAL INCOME,
$7,500,000.00.
Policies in Force Over 60,000.

FOR EVERY $100 OF LIABILITIES, IT HAS $154 OF ASSETS.

THIS COMPANY has proven to be the CHEAPEST, BEST AND MOST RELIABLE in the country, because it has the largest Income, largest number of Policy holders largest surplus of Assets over Liabilities, its dividends to policyholders have been larger than any other Company, and ratio of expenses less; therefore being the cheapest and best Company for the insured.
The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes, or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past, the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.
The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make GRAND PROMISES of what they INTEND DOING but will insure persons on any plan desired, and all its policies are non-forfeiting for a stated amount after two or three payments.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills speedily cure:
For Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppressed or Painful Periods they should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.
Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.
Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.
Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.
So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c, &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year of the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted), unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
